

Best CEO
 Institutional Investor
 January 2007

BorgWarner ranking: #2

How the rankings were compiled: Over 1000 asset management professionals were asked to name the best CEOs in the sector (or sectors) for which they are responsible. Respondents gave their first, second, and third choices, which Institutional Investor weighted to produce a score for each CEO.

CONSUMER
Autos & Auto Parts
1	John Barth	Johnson Controls
2	Timothy Manganello	BorgWarner
3	Richard Dauch	American Axle & Manufacturing Holdings

Best CFO
 Institutional Investor
 February 2007

BorgWarner ranking: #1

How the rankings were compiled: Nearly 800 asset management professionals were asked to name the best CFO in the sector (or sectors) for which they are responsible. The respondents gave their first, second and third choices, which Institutional Investor weighted to produce a score for each CFO.

CONSUMER
Autos & Auto Parts
1	Robin Adams	BorgWarner
2	R. Bruce McDonald	Johnson Controls

Most Shareholder-Friendly Companies
 Institutional Investor
 March 2007

BorgWarner ranking: #2

How the rankings were compiled: Over 1100 asset management professionals were asked to name the companies they consider the most shareholder-friendly in the industry sector (or sectors) for which they are responsible. In making their choices, voters were instructed to consider the effectiveness of companies' governance and investor relations as part of their overall efforts to maximize shareholder value. Respondents gave their first, second, third and fourth choices, which Institutional Investor weighted to produce a score for each company.

CONSUMER
Autos & Auto Parts
1	Johnson Controls
2	BorgWarner
3	Gentex Corp.
4	Advance Auto Parts
5	American Axle & Manufacturing Holdings