

BorgWarner Inc. Awarded on Newsweek's America's Most Responsible Companies 2021 List

Auburn Hills, Michigan, Dec. 2, 2020 – BorgWarner Inc. been awarded on Newsweek's list of America's Most Responsible Companies 2021. This prestigious award is presented by Newsweek and Statista Inc., the world-leading statistics portal and industry ranking provider. The awards list was announced on December 2nd, 2020 and can currently be viewed on Newsweek's website.

America's Most Responsible Companies were selected based on publicly available key performance indicators derived from CSR Reports, Sustainability Reports, and Corporate Citizenship Reports as well as an independent survey. The KPIs focused on company performance in the environmental, social, and corporate governance areas, while the independent survey asked U.S. citizens about their perception of company activities related to corporate social responsibility.

The final list recognizes the top 400 most responsible companies in the United States, spanning 14 industries. BorgWarner Inc. is ecstatic to be recognized on Newsweek's list of America's Most Responsible Companies 2021.

"BorgWarner is proud to be recognized by Newsweek as one of America's Most Responsible Companies," said Frédéric Lissalde, President and Chief Executive Officer of BorgWarner Inc. "Each of our 48,000 employees globally play a part in achieving our sustainability goals by supporting our vision of a clean, energy-efficient world, living the BorgWarner beliefs and partnering with and reporting to stakeholders."
