BUSINESS PARTNERS

At BorgWarner we take data protection very seriously. We have developed this Privacy Notice in particular to clearly inform you about how we collect, use, disclose and otherwise process personal data as required by applicable law or as we require in the course of fulfilling our professional responsibilities and operating our business and about your rights under GDPR. Please find descriptions of all definitions used in Annex 1 of this Notice.

1. For whom is this Privacy Notice?

This Notice covers our processing of personal data under GDPR with respect to our Business Partners located in the EEA. ## 6. Do we transfer your data internationally (third country transfers)?

Some recipients of personal data may be located outside the EEA/UK and in countries that do not offer a level of protection equivalent to the one granted in the EEA/UK. Where personal data is transferred to locations outside the EEA/UK, we will, as required by law, ensure that your privacy rights are adequately protected either because the European Commission has decided that the country to which personal data are transferred ensures an adequate level of protection (Art. 45 GDPR) or the transfer is subject to appropriate safeguards provided by entering into standard data protection clauses of the European Union with the recipient (Art. 46 GDPR) unless GDPR provides for an exception (Art. 49 GDPR). In addition to this, we intend to, where necessary, agree on additional measures with recipients to ensure an adequate level of data protection.

A copy of the standard data protection clauses of the European Union can be found here. Copies of other safeguards can be requested by contacting privacy@borgwarner.com.

7. How long do we store your data?

Your personal data will generally only be stored until the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected (or otherwise processed). The personal data therefore generally will be deleted at the latest after the contractual relationship with you or your employer / commissioner has ended and the standard statute of limitations period applicable to that information in the respective country has expired.

As an exception, personal data may be stored longer where their processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation – including compliance with statutory retention periods – to which we are subject or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

8. What rights do you have under GDPR?

- 8.1 Right of access. You may request information about the processing of your personal data and a copy of the personal data undergoing processing insofar as such copy does not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.
- 8.2 Right to rectification. You may request correction of your personal data that is inaccurate and/or completion of such data which is incomplete.
- 8.3 Right to erasure. You may request deletion of your personal data, in particular where (i) the personal data are no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed, (ii) you objected to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate interests for the processing, (iii) your personal data has been unlawfully processed or (iv) your personal data has to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject. The right to deletion, however, does not apply in particular where the processing of your personal data is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

- 8.4 Restriction of processing. You may request restriction of processing (i) for the period in which we verify the accuracy of your personal data if you contested the accuracy of the personal data, (ii) where the processing is unlawful and you request restriction of processing instead of deletion of the data, (iii) where we no longer need the personal data, but you require the data for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims or (iv) if you objected to processing until it has been verified whether our legitimate grounds override your interests, rights and freedoms.
- 8.5 Right to data portability. You may request to receive your personal data, which you have provided to us, in a structured, commonly used machine-readable format and transmit those data to another controller without hindrance from us, where the processing is based on consent or a contract and the processing is carried out by automated means; in these cases you may also request to have the personal data transmitted directly to another controller where this is technically feasible (data portability).
- 8.6 Right to withdraw consent. You may withdraw their consent at any time for the future where processing is based on your consent, without affecting the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.
- 8.7 Right to object.

Right to object

You have the right to object, on grounds relating to your particular situation, at any time to processing of your personal data which is based on our or a third party's legitimate interests.

We then will no longer process your personal data for the purpose to which you have objected unless we are able to demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override your interests, rights and freedoms or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

Where we process your personal data for direct marketing purposes, you have the right to object at any time to processing of your personal data for such direct marketing. We then will no longer process your personal data for direct marketing purposes.

- 8.8 Right to lodge a complaint. You may lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of your habitual residence, place of work or place of an alleged infringement if you consider that the processing of your personal data infringes the GDPR.
- A list of the European supervisory authorities can be found here.
- 8.9 France – Right to digital legacy. Should you be located in France, you additionally have the right to define (general or specific) directives regarding the fate of your personal data after your passing.

Please address your requests to exercise your rights to privacy@borgwarner.com (with the exception of the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority).
